COMPACT: SHARED RESPONSIBILITIES FOR HIGH STUDENT ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT 1118(d)

This compact was jointly developed with parents and staff of James Madison #10. The Parents as well as the entire school staff and students will share in the responsibility for improved student achievement.

Parents will support student learning by:

- Monitoring attendance
- Making sure that homework is completed
- Monitoring amount of television children watches
- Participating, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education
- Promoting positive use of children's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about children's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district, either received by children or by mail, and responding as appropriate
- Serving, to the extent possible, on policy advisory groups, such as school advisory or policy groups
- Staff will support student learning by:
- Students will daily receive at least 80 minutes of reading instruction and at least 80 minutes of math instruction
- Hold parent-teacher conferences. Conferences will be held (at least annually): The purpose of the conference will be to review the student report card and discuss academic successes and weaknesses.
- Provide parents with frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows: Parents will be provided 3 interim reports as well as 3 report cards throughout the year.
- Teachers will also use the student agenda on a daily basis to communicate with parents.
- All Grades are maintained in Parent Portal for review.

Students will support their own learning by:

- Do my homework every day and ask for help when I needed
- Read at least 20 minutes every day outside of school time
- Give to parents or the adult who is responsible for my welfare all notices and information received by me from my school every day

BUILDING CAPACITY FOR INVOLVEMENT1118(e)

To ensure effective involvement
